

Children's Creative Playday Board Application

The Board of Directors of Children's Creative Playday is a group of volunteers that works to support the mission and programming of Children's Creative Playday. We are comprised of men & women of differing backgrounds, skills, spiritual gifts and talents who work together to enhance and support the vision and planning of Playday. Board Member selection is based on skills and perspectives that will create a well-rounded representation of the participants of our program. We appreciate your willingness to serve in this capacity!
